Bill Ford, a 78-year-old founder of the company, was taken into custody Tuesday evening at his Palo Alto, California, home, the Santa Clara County Sheriff's Office said. He was charged with one felony count of domestic violence and three misdemeanors: elder abuse, assault by means of force likely to produce great bodily injury, and false imprisonment, the office said. Police were called to the residence, where they found the victim and attempted to interview her, but she declined to comment, sheriff's office spokesman Capt. Daren Owens said. The couple had been married for 47 years, according to Ford Motor Co. Ford's daughter and wife were not at the residence at the time of the arrest, the sheriff's office said. Read MoreThis invention relates to the welding of workpieces and deals more particularly with the welding of heavy wall steel castings used in the formation of nuclear reactor vessels and the like. Welding of castings in an inert atmosphere such as argon has been in use for many years. The atmosphere, however, is not as effective as desired and is subject to explosion. The following are the references relating to the state of the art. The use of oxygen and argon in
